

Increase Your Exposure with a Partnership

On Friday 4 May and Saturday 5 May 2012, the virtual assistant industry will be holding its annual Australian Virtual Assistant Conference.

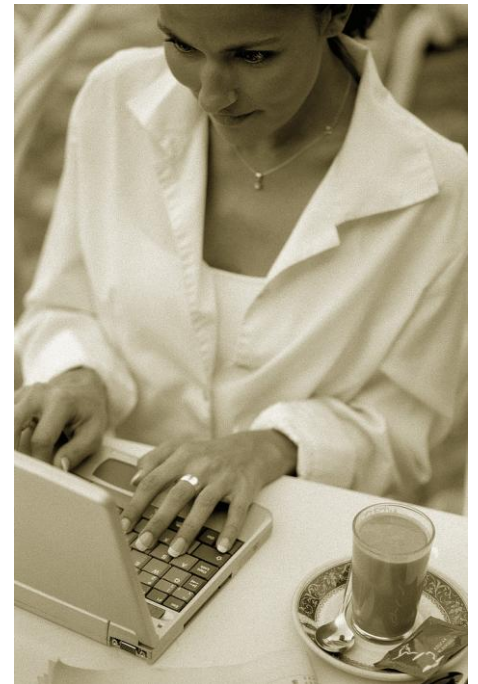

This event is a celebration of the dedication and hard work of all Virtual Assistants world-wide. This event aims to educate and assist all VAs in their careers also providing the perfect opportunity to network with their peers and discuss services and products they can use in the business to streamline processes.

This is your opportunity to increase your exposure by forming an AVAC Partnership which will benefit your organisation throughout the entire year.
